

Table 3

Significant Normalized Factor Scores—Factor 2
“Authorities Will Protect Privacy”

| No. | Statement | Z Score |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| 3 | Fines of $50,000 and up, plus prison time; “intentional” acts | 1.413* |
| 14 | My lawyer can receive a copy of my health information | 1.398* |
| 4 | My physician will possibly lose his/her reputation/practice | 1.120 |
| 7 | I can send my information to a different address/e-mail | 1.073* |
| 24 | My information can be reviewed by a healthcare oversight group | 1.062* |
| 17 | The company that processes bills can review my information | -1.030 |
| 13 | Patient sign-in sheets are not left in the open | -1.204 |
| 1 | Employees who misuse information must be reported | -1.356* |
| 16 | The hospital auditors can review my health information | -1.468 |
| 25 | My information can be released if I am a crime victim | -1.488 |
| 19 | Employees will have limited access to my information | -1.554* |
| 15 | The hospital lawyer can review my health information | -1.744 |

* Distinguishing statements significant at $P < .01$