Figure 2

System Workflow

1. Application front end on a PC used as the primary interface for data input
2. On-site server for storing data
3. Data retrieval from the server using a simple mobile phone by means of SMS
4. USB-based health card that can be connected to the PC to download patient data