

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

PERSPECTIVES

in Health Information Management

VOLUNTEER EDITOR

Perspectives is now accepting applications for the volunteer role of editor starting September 1, 2017. Applications should include a CV, description of publication experience, references, and a vision statement for the publication.

All materials should be submitted as Word files or links to perspectives@ahima.org by August 7, 2017. For more information and to view a complete position description, please visit the Perspectives web site at perspectives.ahima.org/volunteer-editor/.

Criteria for New Volunteer Editor

- ✓ Publication experience
- ✓ Advanced degree (doctorate, JD, etc.)
- ✓ Eminence as scholar and researcher in health informatics and health information management
- ✓ In depth knowledge of topics related to health informatics and health information management
- ✓ Communication skills
- ✓ Able to commit about 20 hours a month
- ✓ Ability to provide leadership in raising the profile of a start-up journal as it enters its next phase, including ideas for marketing and promotions.

Perspectives in Health Information Management is a scholarly, peer-reviewed research journal whose mission is to advance health information management practice and to encourage interdisciplinary collaboration between HIM professionals and others in disciplines supporting the advancement of the management of health information.

