

Table 1

Representative Questions Used in the Key Informant Interviews

Key Questions	Related Themes
I would like to know about the computerized health management information system with respect to maternal and child health.	Purpose of the system, specific features of the system, flow of information
Do you think the computerized health information management system has made improvements in maternal and child health? If yes, how?	System-level and community-level improvements
Human resources: Who are the people involved in the system?	People involved at different levels
Human resources: Is there any training provided to the human resources? If yes, how?	Process of data management, support provided to the healthcare frontline workers, training and capacity building
Is there any information about the challenges that are faced in implementing this type of system?	At functional level, training, infrastructure, policy implementation, feedback system, data privacy and security
Are there any clear gaps where we need further evidence and planning for follow-up on the initiative?	Technical issues, training, and sustainability
Are standards for data collection maintained and systematically used?	Process of data management