The Montgomery County, Maryland, COVID-19 dashboard contains a data table on the bottom left corner that provides data from the illustration above it. The tabulated data is another way to read and comprehend the data in addition to the line chart.